

Do not regulate away my fair use rights. I want to be able to record TV programs and watch them when it is convenient for me to do so. I already do this with a digital TV recorder. It is a great convenience to me and my family. The proposed regulations will prevent my fair use of copyrighted material but it won't stop determined copyright violators. A crook will crack your hardware, your encryption, or both.